DEADLINE January 3rd, 2018

AWARD: $200 + admission to the Festival on March 24th, 2018, a congratulatory mention on our website, Facebook page, and on the Main Stage!

ILLUSTRATION REQUIREMENTS: Due to the nature of the event (which includes alcohol), artists must be 21 years of age or older, or have signed parental consent.

- The illustration's proportions need to be in horizontal format.
- The image should be colorful.
- Illustration content should be indicative of the event's offerings and character. For insight please refer to the description at right, our Facebook page and www.capitalfoodandwinefestival.com.
- All content must be copyright-free.
- For a bit of whimsy please include one or more Puget Sound animals, wild or domestic, easily seen or nearly hidden in the scene.
- A high-resolution digital photo or scan of the art is all that is needed for production purposes so you may retain the original art or donate it to the Festival for display.

DEADLINE: Wednesday, January 3rd, 2018

To participate please e-mail a high-resolution photo or scan of the artwork, your name and contact information to Stacey at hello@staceygracen.com. By entering your artwork it is agreed that your illustration might be shared (with credit to the artists), on the Festival's website or social media, but only the winning illustration will be used on print materials and receive the $200 cash award.

Thank you in advance for your participation. We look forward to seeing what your imagination and talent come up with!

ABOUT THE FESTIVAL:

The Capital Food and Wine Festival is brought to you by the Saint Martin's Thurston County Chapter, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit* organization whose proceeds benefit student scholarships at Saint Martin's University.

This yearly fundraiser offers its patrons a choice of more than 100 regional wines accompanied by knowledgeable vintners, dozens of NW beers and hard ciders, and a vast array of tasty food options from local restaurants and specialty shops. Add in three stages of live music and we have a reliable crowd pleaser!

Since the Festival first began in 1989, approximately 120,000 people have participated. Every year thousands of patrons, hundreds of volunteers, dozens of local businesses and specialized vendors from all over the Pacific Northwest come together to make this event possible.
